Dear staff of It's FOSS,

I'm writing to you on behalf of FOSScope, a newly established organization formed by volunteers and open-source contributors, and we are committed to promote open-source technologies. Many of us are readers of articles on It's FOSS website, and we found these articles have a very high quality. Therefore, we'd like to translate these articles into Chinese, and we believe that by providing translations, we can enhance accessibility to valuable information for the Chinese-speaking community. So, we'd like to request your permission to us for translating these articles.

We use CC BY-SA as the license for our contents, so we can assure you that proper credits will be given for all translated articles, with the information of the original source, author, and a link that points to the original article on the It's FOSS website.

Thank you for considering our request, and we look forward

Best regards,

@Cubik65536
